

MSLE Generative AI for Teaching Bootcamp (GAIB)

COURSE OVERVIEW

New skills for a new way of working

- AI offers tremendous potential to empower workers around the world—but only if everyone, everywhere has the skills to use it. Microsoft is focused on ensuring people in every community and every classroom have access to the skills needed to succeed in an AI-enabled economy.

Supporting educational institutions with professional development opportunities

- AI skills are in demand across every industry and sector. As part of Microsoft's AI Skills initiative, Microsoft is offering curriculum, resources, and training to support faculty and educators who provide or are interested in providing training and enablement for student AI skilling.
- This instructor-led bootcamp, delivered by Sunset Learning Institute offers educators a glimpse into the power of Generative AI for teaching. The bootcamp teaches K-12 and higher education educators how to create a syllabus, lesson plans, quizzes, assignments, and grading rubrics using AI tools. Participants will learn effective prompting techniques, engage in collaborative projects and discussions, and access teaching resources through the Microsoft Learn for Educators (MSLE) program.
- By the conclusion of this bootcamp, educators will be equipped with the knowledge and tools to use technology to make learning more interactive and impactful.

COURSE OUTLINE

The bootcamp is delivered over one 6.5-hour in-person session.
